Competitions Sexsmith Spiel Commenced Tuesday Are In Jewelry Stage of Main Events

SEXSMITH, Jan. 10. — The two main events in the Sexsmith Spiel, which got under way on Tuesday, the Grand Challenge and the Jewelry Stage, have reached the jewelry stage and the other events are progressing favorably.

The Spiel has brought out some excellent curling and games have been won by the narrowest margins. A detailed report will appear in the next issue of The Tribune.

Grand Challenge
In the Grand Challenge event two Grande Prairie rinks reached the jewelry stage, Dalgleish and Swallow. Dalgleish will meet Hall and McKay will battle it out with Swallow's crew.

Asked to Take Part In Golden Jubilee Of Vancouver
Matter To Be Taken Up By The Associated Board Of Trade Of The Peace River — Good Will Tours Suggested.

Mayor Tooley returned on Tuesday's train from Edmonton, where he spent several days on his own business and in the interest of the town.

Together with members of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce, His Worship met Mrs. Marguerite, president of the Harrison and Agassiz Associated Boards of Trade, who is making a tour of the Dominion in publicity for the Golden Jubilee of the city of Vancouver celebration, to be held from May 24 to September 7 of this year.

Mrs. Marguerite asked the corporation of the various Boards of Trade in the Peace River in seeing to it that the country is well represented by representative citizens and products.

It was suggested that the Peace River Board of Trade cooperate with the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce in organizing a good will tour to Vancouver during the Jubilee.

His Worship, who is also secretary of the Grande Prairie Board of Trade, informed The Tribune that he would take the whole question up with the Associated Board of Trade of the Peace River, with a view of meeting the request to have a Peace River country well represented at the Jubilee.

Mr. Tooley took up several matters with the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce. He invited President J. Glenwright and Secretary John H. Jones to attend the Grande Prairie Board of Trade annual banquet to be held shortly.

His Worship also interviewed the Minister of Agriculture, W. M. Chant, in regard to highway and flood conditions along Slave Lake.

It was the desire of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce at a meeting to discuss codes regulations with Premier Albert and Mr. C. Manning.

His Worship also called on Mayor Clarke and took up relief problems and the suggestion that the province should take over a greater responsibility in the matter.

Interesting Mixed Spiel In Progress At Spirit River
SPIRIT RIVER, Jan. 14. — Spirit River curlers are in the midst of a very keenly contested mixed Spiel. The fourteen local rinks entered are shipped by W. Chant, the club's president, H. E. Harper, R. A. Harrington, I. A. White, K. Walden, C. Neill, A. F. Butt, O. Koon, Fred White, T. M. Wright, O. Gilles, C. Rappel, and P. Squires, while the two Bycroft rinks entered are O. A. Johnson and H. Marry.

Most of the games so far have brought out good curling and close competition.

The winners in the first games are playing through for first and second prizes, while the losers are in a left-hand draw for third and fourth prizes.

Teams in the right-hand fours are: Murray, Neill, Fred White and the winners of a Walter Gilles game, on the left-hand draw, Walden, Butt, Johnson and Squires are still in the running.

EDMONTON, Jan. 15. — Federal aid, credited with saving Alberta's credit, has been secured so that the province might meet its bond issue which fell due when the banks opened in Montreal, Toronto and Edmonton.

Mr. C. A. Dunning, federal finance minister, declared that the assistance to the provinces was given by means of a direct loan from the Dominion treasury.

Word reached Grande Prairie on Thursday that Charles "Chuck" Gilles, well-known hall player and prominent farmer of the Spirit River district, died today.

"Chuck" was one of the best bull pitchers in the north country. His sudden passing will be regretted not only in sport circles but by a host of other friends.

OTTAWA, Jan. 10. — Canada could have a healthy automobile industry without any duty protection, Dr. Caruthers, economic adviser to the British Columbia government, argued before the Tariff Board today.

Dr. Caruthers said, never tried to get along without protection. It had developed out of the old carriage industry, which enjoyed protection of 35 per cent, and naturally had taken advantage of all the protection it received down through the years.

Clairmont Puckists Defeat G. P. Team In Fast Game

CLAIRMONT, Jan. 14. — The local senior team took Grande Prairie into camp here on Monday night to the tune of 3 to 0 in four 15-minute periods.

Due to the fact that it was snowing the first period was somewhat slow. During the rest period the snowing stopped and the remaining periods saw real fast hockey.

The visitors had more shots on goal than the home team, but the latter's goalie, Fred Anderson, played an airtight game and try as they did, the boys from Grande Prairie were unable to bulge the twine.

Clairmont's first goal was scored in the second stanza when Bud Ireland beat Donaldson on a pass from Allen.

The home team followed this up with another little later.

In the third period Frank Durda distinguished himself by scoring unassisted.

Rusty Black had a deep gash above his left eye this period when he was struck by the puck.

The game was fast and clean throughout, the rules being strictly enforced by referee R. A. Trout.

POSTPONE CLAIRMONT DANCE
CLAIRMONT, Jan. 16. — The Hockey Club dance which was to have been held on January 24 has been postponed till a later date.

Shippers on the last stock train from the Peace River found a ready market demand for both hogs and cattle. Bacon hogs brought $7.50, while cattle showed a slight advance over the previous shipment. Lamb were the best price they have been for several years.

There were 84 cars in the train from this area when it pulled into the Edmonton stock yards.

It is understood that sixteen carloads of stock arrived from north of the Peace, making a slight advance for the season.

Many cattle are on feed south of the Peace, so that the stock shipments from this area should be steady for the balance of the season.

P. River Country Created a Seed Fair District

Sometime ago the province was divided into three seed fair districts by the Alberta government.

The Peace River was named by being made a separate district, the eastern boundary being Smith and the western the boundary line between Alberta and British Columbia.

Lethbridge district fair was recently held at Lethbridge, and the Calgary district, which includes the central part of the province, will follow the Grande Prairie Seed Fair being held here this week.

The winning samples in each section will be forwarded to the Provincial Fair, which will be held at Calgary following the district fairs.

The Department of Agriculture will pay the expenses of shipping the winning samples to Calgary to be judged for the provincial championships.

THE PEACE RIVER OUTLET

R. T. Elliott, M.C., in an article appearing in The Edmonton Bulletin under the headline "The World Outlook for 1936," writes in part as follows:

"Canada only needs some definite action by Parliament at the next session towards providing the Peace River valley with proper railway facilities, to open the way for a great national growth, expansion and increase of domestic commerce. It is even the great year when Canada was transformed from a colony into a nation under the leadership of Sir Wilfrid Laurier."

"The bridge across the Peace River will cost about sixty-seven million dollars, more than one-sixth of the amount spent in Peace River area rail extension will enable at least one million families to establish homes and develop Canada's last Great West into one of the greatest development factors in the national life of Canada."

"Just for one year—1936—let us pray that Parliament will forget about the manufacture of shirts and handkerchiefs and give us the Peace River valley and the outlet which is handicapping the development of this country."

"Mr. Elliott, who does not explicitly say so, implies that the proper railway facilities will never be built for the Peace River until the Coast Outlet is an accomplished fact."

The Tribune has from time to time pointed out the Peace River outlet which will never rightly come into its own until it is built. It is not a new idea, and the only way this can be accomplished is by construction of a railway outlet.

At present we are at the highest point so far as freight rates are concerned. If the outlet were constructed the Peace River would be closer to tidewater than any other great agricultural area in the world. That means that grain and other produce would reach the coast at a single rate, and that the promise to construct the outlet would have long ago been fulfilled.

Mr. Elliott, in the editorial expressed in the article quoted, that the "Dominion Parliament will devote some third statement and constructive purpose towards the development of the Peace River empire, the greatest national opportunity in the world for the future of Canada."

"Cut out the damnable hole system and put men to useful work, at just wages, on a project which when completed will immediately become a national asset and give to this country a service to which it is entitled."

UNEASY LIES THE HEADS OF DICTATORS

When Mussolini, dictator of Italy, was building up his huge army, which he finally launched against Ethiopia, with which nation he had no difference which could have been easily adjusted by arbitration, he evidently did not anticipate the opposition that has been raised up in the outraged conscience of the majority of the nations of the world.

History does not record a more cold-blooded, uncalculated invasion of a nation.

It has been proven that human nature is so constituted that it cannot long be entrusted with absolute power. Beethoven, with his misdeeds, and Napoleon, with his misdeeds, and the countless results which finally sent him to St. Helena.

A similar fate seems to be awaiting Mussolini. With his army of men being depleted and with an army of a quarter of a million in Ethiopia which apparently is making no headway against his black adversaries, who with fever and a holding in check the enemy, Mussolini is between the devil and the deep sea. He must win the war or share with Ethiopia or be swept out of power by his own people.

There are some who argue that

Italy has the same right as other nations claimed in the past to extend their respective territories. Why, then, they argue, should Italy be permitted to do the same thing? Why, they say, apply a certain principle to Italy which has never been lived up to by other nations in the past.

The answer to this, as The Tribune sees it, is: We cannot live on the past. What has been done has been done. If we are to have a better world we must have a new starting point, and there is no better time to start than the present time. There is only one way to prevent war, and that is to create a condition under which one nation cannot ruthlessly invade another.

Every people have a right to their place in the sun, be they black or white or yellow or red.

In its efforts to see that the will of the League of Nations, of which Italy was a member, is put in force, the League is being subjected to the crucial test. May it be successful. If it can successfully ride the storm, smoother waters are ahead of the various ships of states.

GRANDE PRAIRIE'S CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS LIGHTING SCHEME

During the Christmas holiday season, Grande Prairie's added colored street lighting scheme was the subject of favorable comment by not only the residents of the town but also by visitors from the surrounding country.

There was only one fault to find with the colored lighting scheme, and that was that it was not as bright as it should have been due to a shortage of colored globes and other items.

The lighting of buildings with colored lights during the Christmas holiday season should be made a permanent policy by the business men and the town council.

The Tribune would suggest that from now on plans should be laid far enough ahead to allow the Canadiana residents to complete the necessary material, instead of leaving everything to the last few days. Such action would permit of the best lighting system being installed in the business section of the town.

There is nothing to see this prominent writer, Mr. Elliott, pointing out the Peace River outlet which will never rightly come into its own until it is built.

It is not a new idea, and the only way this can be accomplished is by construction of a railway outlet.

At present we are at the highest point so far as freight rates are concerned. If the outlet were constructed the Peace River would be closer to tidewater than any other great agricultural area in the world.

Should Mercer Hill Be Snow Fenced?

Mercer's Hill, Alta.,
13th January, 1936

Dear Mr. Editor:
I am sitting here in a snow-bank wondering if you have ever been a travelling man. If not, all you have to do to qualify is to take a short trip to Mercer Hill after a snow storm. Do not forget to take a shovel with you—it is very necessary.

Only the other day I met a man, very red of face and with muscles bulging so that he had difficulty in discharging his overcoat. He advised me to take a trip to Mercer Hill and was now a full-fledged traveller. All this time he had been travelling in a snow-fence, a few rods in length, has never been thought of. Or, at least, he had not thought of the expense of such an undertaking that tends to disturb the peace of mind and the thinking of Mercer Hill.

It has been suggested by a few "fellows" here under the name of "Mercer's Hill" that they would willingly subscribe towards the purchase of such a fence if the government would supply at cost. Personally I think the government should not be disturbed. They are too busy with other matters, and moreover I do not know of any travelling man with Political Influence.

It has been further suggested that the material should be purchased locally much cheaper than from the government, even at cost. In such a case the travellers would be glad to organize a "fence" some Sunday afternoon for the purpose of erecting such a fence.

What Mr. Editor might be glad to figure it out for yourself. I would mean an open road from spirit house to Mercer Hill. It would not have to be completed in one season. At a later date, if the government will, it could be a "fence" to the Mercer Hill.

Yourself agitated, JUST ANOTHER TRAVELLING MAN.

Tells of Trip To His Native Land

Says That 75% of the Homes in Norway Now Enjoy Electric Light—100% Objective to Be Reached in a Few Years.

The following interesting letter was received by The Tribune from Barney Thronos, of the La. Glace district, who is visiting his native country, Norway.

Dear Mr. Editor:
I am writing to you from Norway, where I am visiting my native land. I am very glad to hear from you and to hear that you are still interested in the Peace River valley.

The place is almost the same as before, only the distance is shorter, the hills are lower, and the water is deeper. But I promise this: the eye that has seen the Peace River valley will never forget it.

A great change has taken place throughout this country since I left. The hills are lower, the water is deeper, and the people are more civilized. I have seen a lot of things that I have never seen before.

After stopping off at several points through the fjords, we arrived at the city of Oslo. It is a beautiful city, and I have seen a lot of things that I have never seen before.

On the 25th, in the afternoon, we went to the harbor. It is a beautiful harbor, and I have seen a lot of things that I have never seen before.

At the time of the year in these latitudes, the sun is not very high in the sky. It is a beautiful sight, and I have seen a lot of things that I have never seen before.

There is nothing to see in the line of reading that we miss more than The Tribune.

Nine such stations operate across Canada, and in each of the past three years Canadian station-bred horses have been purchased by the governments of Trinidad and Barbados, where the animals have proven highly satisfactory in constabulary work. Taken all in all, the present outlook for the horse breeder in Canada is very promising, and the raising of good horses should be a sound and profitable business for years to come.

R. S. LAW

Mr. Law, president and general manager of United Grain Growers Limited, is to take up his residence in Alberta within a few months.

The board of directors of the company has decided to establish the office of the president and general manager at its Calgary office.

Although the company operates extensively in all three prairie provinces, the largest of its business is much larger in Alberta than in either Saskatchewan or Manitoba. That fact, together with the importance of the company's business at Vancouver, makes Calgary a suitable location for the office of the president and general manager.

REVIEWS OUTLOOK IN 1936 FOR MILK PRODUCERS

Cows have their census taken just the same as people. A change in the number of cattle is a matter of great importance to dairymen, and the number of milk cows on farms in Canada was less than at the same date in 1934.

The expected result would be a reduction in the total amount of milk produced. Actually, an increase has been reported, due to the material improvement in available feed supplies in most parts of Canada, in addition to the higher proportion of the cows actually being milked. It is in such favorable conditions that the dairy industry in Canada may look forward to returns in 1936 at least as high as in 1935.

Summarizing the situation, the "Outlook" states: "Examination of the factors which will affect the production of dairy products indicates that production is likely to be maintained at a reasonably high level during 1936, and it is expected that the income of dairymen should be as high as during 1935."

For the first ten months of 1935, Canada produced over 215,000,000 pounds of butter, which is sufficient to spread thinly over about nine thousand acres of bread. Storage of butter in Canada was reduced substantially by exportation during the latter part of 1935.

Approximately six million pounds of butter in this country were sold at a comparatively high price, and the price of butter rises to a point where the dairy industry is satisfied that domestic requirements will take care of present stocks and winter production. The per capita consumption of butter in Canada in 1935 was approximately thirty-one pounds, compared with twenty-three pounds in 1931. Consumption since 1931 has remained about constant.

Cheese production in Canada has been declining for a number of years, and this tendency may be halted in 1936. Ontario and Quebec are the important cheese producing provinces. A considerable quantity of cheese is imported into Canada, chiefly of the types not manufactured in this country. Canadian Cheddar cheese is well regarded in Great Britain and commands a premium over cheese of the same type from other countries on that market.

The "Outlook" predicts up-to-date information on the production and market trends for milk, butter, cheese and condensed milk products. This publication will be available free to farmers and others interested about December 15, on application to the Publicity and Extension Branch, Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

VICTIM OF SCIENCE
Insulation Blisters Cause Death Of Assistant in Laboratory

Medical science claimed the life of Anna Palat, young laboratory assistant at the National Institute of Health, who contracted meningitis in the line of duty.

Miss Palat, an experienced technician and co-author of several scientific articles, was working on an animal with meningitis culture on December 17, when the animal moved and some of the culture spilled into her eye.

CANNED BLOOD
Weird Discovery Listed As Major Accomplishment Of 1935

The weirdest discovery of the year, however, was listed as the first of a series of "canned blood" experiments, a feat accomplished by a medical researcher.

A project of taking blood from the bodies of the dead and preserving it to save other lives through transfusion was placed first on a "year book of fame" compiled for the Association of the Journal of the American Medical Association.

A Russian doctor and chemist, derived first rank for developing the "canning" method and using it successfully in more than 1,000 cases, the doctor said.

The annual meeting of the National Dairy Council of Canada will be held in Winnipeg on January 26 and 24, 1936.

GRIM RELIC OF ENGLAND'S WORST AIR CRASH

Eleven people were killed when a Belgian air liner flying from Brussels to London crashed in a field in Kent, and it is listed as the worst airplane crash in the history of English civil aviation. In the picture a policeman can be seen guarding a piece of the plane which dropped into a garden a quarter of a mile from the scene of the crash.

GARBO GIVES INSPIRED PORTRAYAL AS HEROINE OF "THE PAINTED VEIL"

"The Painted Veil," Greta Garbo's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, opening at the Capitol Theatre for three nights next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, January 20, 21 and 22, brings the glamorous Swedish star back to the screen in the twentieth starring production since her arrival in America less than ten years ago.

As a distinct contrast to her last film, "Queen Christina," Garbo returns once more to the fold of modern women in her characterizations and comes through with the most gripping dramatic performance of her career.

Takes Place in China

"The Painted Veil," an adaptation of Somerset Maugham's domestic drama of marriage, divorce and the seductive center of China's plague-stricken regions, tells the story of a modern woman married to a medical scientist who thinks first of his work before thinking of his wife.

The wife, lonely and yearning for love, believes she finds it when she meets a handsome Englishman named Townsend. When the husband discovers his wife's infidelity, and when Townsend refuses to divorce his own wife to marry Katherine, she goes into the plague country.

The role of the wife is made a memorable one in the performance of the incomparable Garbo, who gives it all the depth of feeling and sincerity it demands, adding besides that undercurrent of excitement and glamour which only the presence of this remarkable Swedish actress can give to the screen.

At 21, June, the husband of Garbo, Herbert Marshall, contributes possibly the finest performance of his career, one that gives him opportunity to escape from his earlier roles of "the suave gentleman."

George Brent, excellent as Townsend, George Brent also seems to have found a way of escape from previous typed roles for which he has been famous as the strongest rule of his career.

Richard Bolle, well remembered for his direction of "Men in White" and "Operator 13," directed "The Painted Veil," an assignment that elevates him a notch higher among the ranks of the screen's best directors.

MOSCOW, January 14. — Soviet Union budget for 1935 was announced today at 14,800,000,000 rubles (about $3,100,000,000), which is almost double last year's expenditure.

EDMONTON, Jan. 14.—Abolition of the provincial income tax branch under a plan which will save the province $200,000 a year has been approved at Ottawa, according to reports received here. Federal representatives at the conference with provincial delegations from treasury departments have agreed that the Dominion should collect provincial income taxes when so requested. It was further agreed that the government would bring in amendments to the B. N. A. Act regarding the provinces' taxing rights, with particular reference to gasoline, amusement, fuel oil and retail sales.

EDMONTON LIVE STOCK

EDMONTON, Jan. 16.—Cattle receipts are getting burdensome. Salesmen are finding much difficulty in placing their offerings and maintaining prices. Buyers are indifferent in their attitude and hesitant in their bids. The few sales made indicate that prices are working lower. 25 cents and lower in spots. Farmers would be happy to keep their cattle in the barns for the time being. On the hog market up to noon a few trucks had been unloaded, but no more were to be seen. No bids on fresh and frozen.

NOTES FROM THE BADMINTON CLUB

Mr. R. J. Dinning, Commissioner for the Alberta Government Liquor Board, who was in Grande Prairie on a brief business visit last Tuesday, paid a call to the Grande Prairie Badminton Club that evening.

Mr. Dinning is president of the Alberta Badminton Association and appeared to be impressed by the large local following of the game and low membership fees, especially considering the fact that the club supplies the "birds" without additional charge.

During the course of the evening he met quite a few of the players.

Having witnessed several games, he was of the opinion that members of the club would be real competition for any average "outside" club, and he extended to anyone or group of badminton players an invitation to use the courts of the Edmonton Badminton Club at anytime they decided to go to the city.

Mr. Dinning said he would like to see representation from the club in the provincial tournament to be held about February 10, in which he thought some of the club's players would be of the sport would make a creditable showing.

About the largest turnout of the season enjoyed by the club was on Tuesday, January 15, when a number of players kept the courts busy throughout the evening.

An invitation was also received from the Hythe club during the week to play at Hythe, which invitation will probably be taken advantage of later in the season.
